

No Monkey Business: / by Renee Ellison

Discipline strategies for training children

Table of Contents

Part I:	Discipline in the Home	page 1
	Submission of the flesh	2
	Begin with the end in view	4
	3 images for how to view discipline	7
	Nurturing moments	9
	Raise up a shield of expertise in your child	11
	Can you love your child too much?	12
	Absolute surrender and lavish love	14
	Training, not tyranny	15
	Training tools:	17
	#1: Busy children are happy children
	#2: Spanking	19
	#3: Diverting attention	22
	#4: Make it counter-productive to them	23
	#5: Consistency	23
	#6: Re-runs	24
	#7: Shape the attitude	24
	Semantic atmosphere	25
	Why say "Thank-You"?	29
	The authority of your word	29
	Respect, and appeals to authority	30
	Accidents	31
	Sickness—and sibling rivalry	32
	Stick figure eye-openers	34
	The quality of your discipline	35
	Inconvenient vigilance	36
	Help from the Holy Spirit	38
	Work ethic—and results	40-41
	Index to Part 1	42
Part II:	Strategies for Managing Groups	Page 43
	44 group discipline strategies	44
	Positive phrases to use with children	53
	Many ways to say "very good"	54
	Group discipline techniques in a nutshell (review)	55